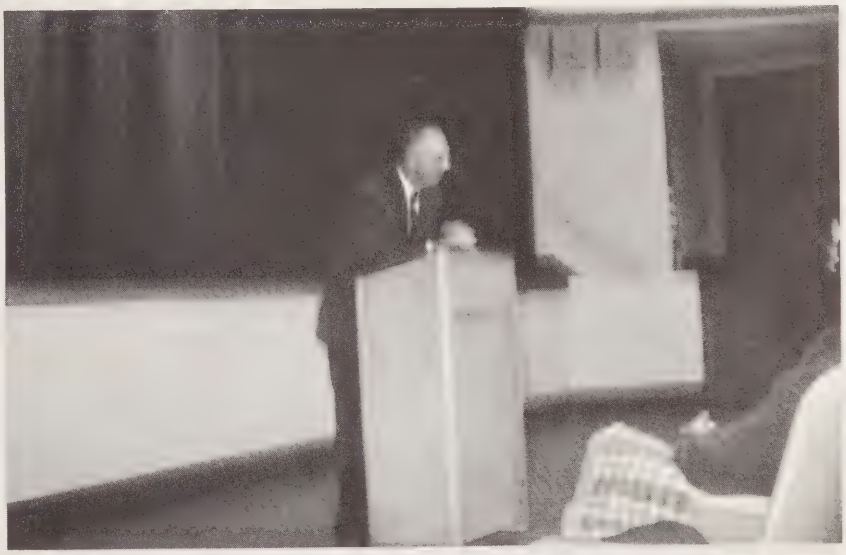
Key to Understanding.

In Memoriam

The entire student body and faculty of Pinehurst High School were saddened by the death of Superintendent Lewis S. Cannon. Mr. Cannon had counseled, informed, and disciplined PHS students for nineteen years. During this time, he earned the respect and love of all students and teachers and a special admiration from each graduating senior class.

His ever-present emphasis on the importance of higher education had been noted throughout the community. His completely unselfish concern for any student with a desire to go on to college can never be forgotten by a great number of students who are now in college, or have finished college, only because of his aid.

We students at Pinehurst find it impossible to express our heartfelt emotions over the loss of this devoted educator. In his memory we issue this, the 1966 Rebel; but as a more lasting and meaningful memorial, we pledge ourselves, our lives, and our future to be of the high moral and intellectual standards set for us by Mr. Cannon.



Dedication

We dedicate this edition of the REBEL to Mr. Spencer. Purposely, we singled him out for this special recognition; yet, it is difficult to express the reasons behind our choice.

Admittedly, Mr. Spencer is a unique personality, an unusual mixture of wit, sarcasm, and aloof detachment. We are not honoring him for any particular considerations he has shown to us, but we are trying to show our appreciation to him for encouraging us, yes forcing us, to be independent personalities, to think for ourselves, to evaluate others' opinions, and to reach our own conclusions. Many times as part of his lectures he presented to us scientific theories, such as the theory of evolution. Always, we were given a chance to challenge what he presented even though he usually always seemed to have the final word. This spirit of questioning is one of the basic ideals of the democracy we live in, and Mr. Spencer has done the most, we feel, to welcome it into our high school.

There is no coddling in his classes, as any student who has survived a year in his freshman homeroom will testify. Yet his is the professional attitude met most frequently in colleges. Thus, we who plan to continue our education are grateful to him for this preparation.

As a person, he is frank, often verbose and intense when the subject is truly worthwhile, and laconic and preoccupied when otherwise. He is ambitious and does not hide his contempt for laziness in others. He admires and respects true talent in students and his associates, and can be won over best by sincerity.

When remembering the lighter moments of our four years with Mr. Spencer, we will picture him sipping his Bunsen-burner brewed coffee or grumbling over his Metracal; or, perhaps we will recall the story of the Muck-Men or his accounts of some of the adventures of his earlier life.

These then are our reasons for dedicating our work here to Mr. Spencer. We hope that in this way we can convey our appreciation to him.

Not enough recognition is given to our office secretaries. Yet, with a little thought, one realizes that only through their efficiency can the school function smoothly at all times.

Also, the school board is to be commended on their handling of the crisis brought about by the loss of our beloved superintendent. These men, community leaders, serve as the bulwark of Pinehurst School though they usually remain in the background.

Outstanding Seniors Represent PHS

. . . at the Governor's School

Barbara Garrison spent the summer of '65 at Salem College, Winston-Salem. There, she participated in the eight week residential program for 400 academically and artistically talented North Carolina high school students.

She majored in English, but in addition she was exposed to discussion groups, lectures, and literature made available to develop each student's ability to probe into the essential ideas of man.

The stated purpose of the Governor's School is "to provide gifted young people with a firm foundation of critical inquiry and thought to enable them to become the leaders of tomorrow."

. . . at Western Carolina

Michael Lewis took part in the Superior and Gifted Student Program held for two sessions in the summer of 1965. His area of study was college-level English. One educator has said concerning this program, "Students learn to make good use of their time, and develop wholesome respect for knowledge and learning. The exposure to college experiences and the satisfaction derived from success in doing the work increase the students' interest in later full-time college attendance."

Mike also represented PHS at Boys' State this same summer.

. . . and at Girls' State.

Nancy Long and Gail Lea participated in the week long program of Girls' State sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. The program was held on the campus of UNC-G.

Its purpose is to provide through practical experience an understanding of the structure of our state government and to develop within these girls a sense of their responsibility as political citizens.

Beta Club obtains money through cake raffles.

The purpose of the National Beta Club is to promote the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership among the high school students of America, to reward meritorious achievement, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school.

Although our chapter was small in number this year, it planned to keep on working to improve the club and school. Betas were able to make money for these improvements by raffling cakes at ball games. Some of this money is spent for such projects as buying educational records for the school.

The Student Council supposedly gives students a chance to voice their opinion in the affairs of the school through representatives. One officer and representative is chosen from each class by the student body at the end of each school year.

Each year the Student Council sponsors Religious Emphasis Week for the benefit of the student body. Also usually sponsored is at least one trip to a college football game at U. N. C.

The F.H.A. is composed of girls who are taking or have taken Home Economics. The purpose of F.H.A. is to instill in the members the value of homemaking. Each year is filled with the annual Hobo Day, Christmas fruitcake sales, and many special projects. Some of the rewards of a year's work are the Mother, Father, and Daughter Banquet and a trip for two girls to the National F.H.A. Convention.

French Club promotes better mastery of language.

The purpose of the French Club is to offer students particularly interested in this subject a chance to study the French people, their customs and holidays. At the same time, these students steadily improve their pronunciation and mastery of idioms.

The Monogram Club is an organization for lettermen only.

Membership in the Monogram Club can be earned by lettering in basketball, tennis, baseball, cheerleading, or by academic achievements. This year the Monogram Club attempted to sponsor a bonfire to start off the basketball season. This plan met with disapproval from the faculty and the anticipated bonfire was a failure.

This year's Glee Club does more than just sing.

The Pinettes

Learning to sing is not the only goal of this year's Glee Club. They are delving into the history of music. Certain members, by means of reports, have thrown light on the lives of many famous composers.

One of the bright spots of Glee Club is the Pinettes. They are a group of six girls who have been chosen because of their special singing ability.

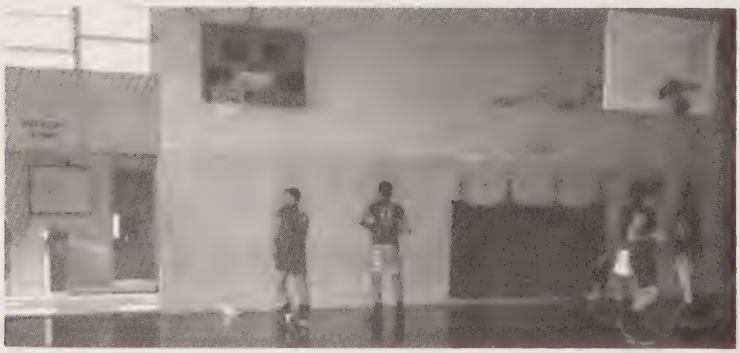
Practice sessions . . .

The times when skills are developed.

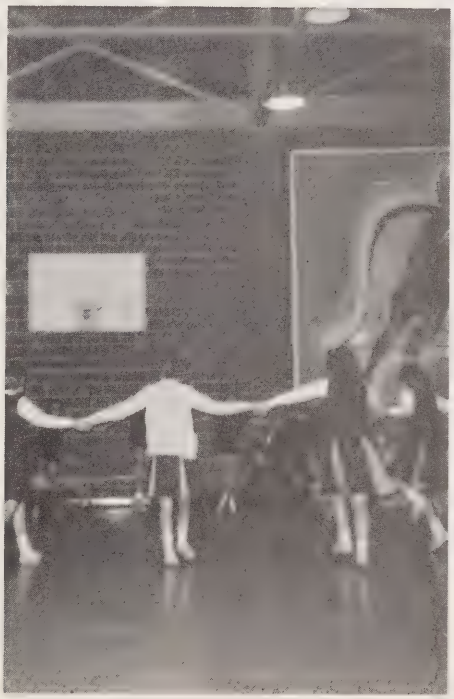


Coaches Paschal and Gillis definitely believe in thorough practice. Ask anyone on either team. It is in these practice sessions that our players master the fundamentals that are the basis of a game well played.

Scrimmages here are for the most part, rougher than any actual game. Drills are tough and exercises strenuous, but we think it's well worth the efforts.

Hopefully, the results will be . . .

Victory!



The 1965 Baseball team had a winning season.

Although baseball at Pinehurst is somewhat overshadowed by basketball, the Rebels still are able to come through victoriously. Baseball games are played on balmy spring afternoons making it an enjoyable game for spectators as well as players.

Coaches' Tribute

ROBERT A. GILLIS

For the past seven years, Robert A. Gillis has proven beyond a doubt that he is a basketball coach of unquestionable quality. He has led the Pinehurst Rebelettes to seven winning seasons, three conference championships, and one tournament championship while compiling a record of 147 wins to only 28 losses. In the past two years, Pinehurst has held a high position in the Eastern North Carolina rankings.

An ardent coach of every aspect of the game, Mr. Gillis' knowledge of the latest developments in regulations and strategy have earned him the respect of other coaches across the state. The bonds between coach and player are strengthened greatly by his understanding attitude and ever-present sense of humor.

W. ROGER PASCHAL

Roger Paschal has been at Pinehurst High School in the capacity of teacher and coach for seven years. He has excelled in both of these categories; though, he has received most of his acclaim as a coach. His compiled won and lost record to date is 150 to 41. In the past years he has led his team to three county championships, two district championships, several conference championships, and a state runner-up's title.

Mr. Paschal's coaching ability has won him the respect and admiration of his boys and his associates. He is noted for his air of assurance and complete calm, and the boys seem to draw confidence from his presence.

Mr. Paschal strives to help his boys develop to their full potential as basketball players. This means a great deal of practice and dedication. But there are the rewards such as a special "Paschal smile" and a very simple but meaningful "well done."

Nancy,

I really don't know how to tell you what this year and your friendship have meant to me. It's all been just great. We've had so many great times together. How could we ever forget the ballgames, selling ads for the annual and for the basketball program, the nights at the Park & Eat, and all our classes here at good old P.H.S.

We've had lots of fun, but I'll be glad to get away from here too. Just think of all the wonderful opportunities and experiences we will be faced with next year at UNC-G. I'm excited and scared to death, but I don't want it going by too fast. I want to see what it's going to be like. We will have to get together often to reminisce and to give each other support.

It has really been wonderful getting to know you as a personal friend. You're a wonderful girl and I'm sure you will succeed in whatever you do.

Always and forever,

Kay

The End

As editors, we would like to use this final bit of space in the 1966 REBEL to print a special thank-you to David Gadd and his "Gadd Enterprises." Only through his interest and talents were we able to obtain a number of these pictures.

To anyone we may have inconvenienced with our impromptu and somewhat less-than-professional photography, we are sorry.

Here's hoping you have enjoyed the REBEL. We have done our best.

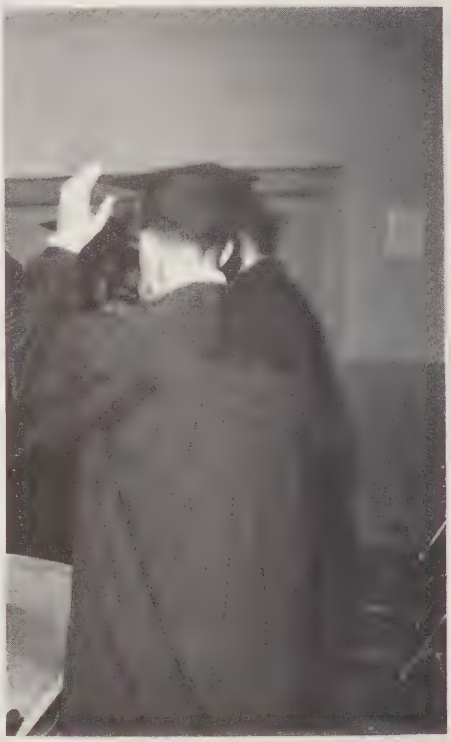
FORWARD ever

be our watchword . . .

CONQUER and PREVAIL.



Nancy I haven't any book to write to you, but I'll try my best to fill this up. These last few months have been more enjoyable with your smiling face. I'm gonna miss the old place. It's gonna be sad. I really glad I got to know you all. I'm running out of words. All that's left is to say be happy and be carefull and wise. Be sure that in everything you do, that you choose what you feel is best. Don't be too quick to decide about things you seem to question. All the kids around here have made me feel so good that I can't believe it. Keep up your typing (cruises, cruises) and always remember to have "good English" Bah — Be yourself at all times like you've been in the past — I wish I'd have known you all longer. Bye — See ya in the future — It's a small world. Heaven knows when you'll run across me. (Terrible thought) I'm not one with words (HA) so that's it!

(you're a riot)

Nancy,

I guess our years have turned some kind of reputation through the four years of high school, but it will be fun anyway. But anyway, I'll bet they're glad.
it will be through with us this year and Best of luck next year in school and coming years!

Love
Janie

Nancy,

Signing annuals
this year is sorta sad, isn't it? But still we've got a lot of things to think back on. We had a lot of fun cheering but some of those shoots! Well, lots o' luck always. Be sweet!

Elaine

I have enjoyed being in your Class and cheering with you. Thanks
a lot for the birthday supper.

Best of Luck always,
Dorothy

Nancy,

I'm really happy that I had the opportunity to get to know such a fine person this year. I like one of the smartest girls in Pinehurst High School, and I can tell ya - we're really going to miss you next year. I don't know what we're going to do without you, Barbara may. We've had 2 years we'll always think of you in the 5 of us. We've had some pretty good times like that "Eggie" hayride. Well, I could go on and on, but enough is enough. Be good (as you can) but you can still raise a little hell now and then.

a friend,

Gail

I guess this will be the last year we will be able to sign our annuals like these. It seems strange. That we should be graduating. I'd like to say thank you for the help you've been to me this year. I am sure that you will have a great deal of success at college next year, & stay happy!

June

Well it looks as though you will be starting all over again being a Freshman in college and afterwards. It's been nice knowing you

Nancy,

It was really great going to school with you. We had some good times - & bad ones, too. Remember Brenda Gordon, etc. Brenda Lee Perry & Alice in the Music. Take good care of yourself.

"Never a quiet moment" — That's how I would describe these years we've been "friends" — I use this word very loosely, because at times I think we've only been acquaintances — even sour enemies — but somehow, the sunshine always comes through the clouds and we're okay again. I'll say one thing, when it comes to having a pure argument, you're the only girl who could ever make me back down from a point — wrong or right — and I've argued with a few... Sometimes it did things you didn't like (by accident or to spite you) and I know you've done the same favors for me. But then again there isn't anything — at all — I wouldn't do for you if it was for a half-decent reason.

To write down the things we've done would take more paper than I'd care to fill — you know that. I hate to write good luck and so forth in an annual — so I won't — all I want to say is do everything you can to be happy — not just to be doing something —. I know it's getting stale after all this time, but I still will hold my guns on one thing... "love is an illusion — that must end in sad conclusion..."

Don't let this happen to you — Make a change before you get hurt — and you will, if you don't.

Seriously — Mike
